

Civil War

About 175 men went to the front of whom 44 were killed or died from wounds. The Town responded more readily than others for its size. A monument was established in the Village Cemetery in the year 1870 to honor these men.

